Fine Wine and Worldly Whiskies

the campbell's resort wine list tells the story of the campbell family's love for their guest, their heritage, and northwest wines, with a special fondness for the chelan valley terroir : our cellar is stocked with delicious vintages from washington, oregon, california, as well as other parts of the world : this wine list is put together in the same way as the resort; well rounded, diverse, offering something for everyone, finished with a personal touch.

"Wine can of their wits the wise beguile, Make the sage frolic, and the serious smile"

Located in the Walla Walla Valley appellation of Washington State,

Woodward Canyon Winery was started in 1981 by Rick Small and his wife, Darcey Fugman-Small. Since that time, the winery has consistently produced premium, cellar worthy cabernet sauvignons, merlots, chardonnays and many other varietals. Early on Rick determined that quality would take precedence over quanti-ty.

Cayuse Vineyards is named after a Native American tribe whose name was derived from the French word "cailloux"—which means "stones."

What was considered by many a foolish gamble on that field of stones has been rewarded year after year with some of the most acclaimed wines in the region—and in the nation.

"Those stones are the reason I'm here in Walla Walla," Christophe Baron says.

much thought, love, and consumption has taken place to create campbell's whiskey collection. while you may recognize several of your favorites on this list, we encourage you to introduce yourself to some new friends. many of these small batch whiskey's once thought lost, have been recently discovered in old rickhouses and distilleries. because some of them will only be available once. and once they're gone, they're gone forever.

Fine collection of whiskey's established by Tom Campbell~ Jesse Stockdale
